STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist Conferences, Missions, and Institutions Throughout the World for the Year Ending December 31, 1999

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT

A Remarkable Year Statistically.—This past year was one of the most statistically remarkable in Seventh-day Adventist history. The baptisms and professions of faith for 1999 (1,090,848) are the most ever recorded. That means that every day on the average in 1999, 2,987 youth and adults throughout the world publicly acknowledged their Creator and Redeemer through baptism or profession of faith into the Seventh-day Adventist Church. That accession rate of 10.73 percent is the highest percentage since 1933. An equally impressive statistic is the growth rate of 7.63 percent. That percentage includes deaths, dropped, and missing and is the highest since 1986. At the end of 1999, there were 775,768 more Seventh-day Adventists than at the beginning of the year. We have thus increased by an average of 2,124 each day during the year bringing our total membership to 10,939,182.

Additional Evidence of Growth.—For the first time in our history, over one million students enrolled in Seventh-day Adventist schools. Additional "firsts" include a Sabbath School membership exceeding 12 million and a total tithe figure of over $1 billion. The ratio of Seventh-day Adventists to world population continued to improve. While there was one Seventh-day Adventist for every 583 persons in the world at the end of 1998, there was one for every 547 at the end of 1999. Another significant statistic relates to the fact that Seventh-day Adventists are growing at a rate of one for every 101 within the current world population increase. Additional evidence of growth is seen within the pages that follow.

The Challenge of Growth.—Contributions for 1999 totaled $1,605,715,044 and is the largest amount contributed any year. It constitutes a per capita giving of $168.32. Staggering as the figures are, however, they illustrate a challenge of growth since the variation in resources within our worldwide membership is vast. Today the average income of a believer living in the United States is 43 times that of a fellow believer in Tanzania. Obviously that impacts the per capita giving between the various divisions. The financial disparity surely gives relevance to the counsel of the author of Hebrews: "Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God" (Heb. 13:16). Our heritage reveals that such counsel is taken very seriously by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

GLOBAL MISSION

The Church's Presence, Outreach, and Mission

Challenge of Global Mission.—The Global Mission document voted at the 1989 Annual Council and endorsed at the 1990 General Conference Session seeks to create an awareness, in concrete measurable terms, of what the gospel commission means to the church today.

Monitoring Global Advance.—Table 1 below lists major unentered regions of the world according to conferences or missions rather than by countries. It is based on a challenge of Global Mission: to place a church among each one million of earth's population. To locate regions where the ratio of churches to population is less than 1:1,000,000, we have used the 2000 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook to find those conferences or missions with low church-to-population ratios. For example, in the Sahel Union Mission of the Africa-Indian Ocean Division the Burkina Faso Mission has a population of 11.6 million but only five churches. Therefore, on average, each church serves a population of 2.3 million people!

This view of the global challenge shows in which conferences or missions the great challenges lie in relation to the Adventist "presence." (For a definition of "presence" see "Definitions" in the next column.)

A column is provided to show the "Population Estimate (Millions) Per Church 1990" for comparison. The basis for these entries is the 1991 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook. In some cases the 1999 ratio is larger than the 1990 ratio. This may be due to a population that is growing more rapidly than the church or to official revisions in population estimates, rather than to a loss of churches. In some cases the fields that existed in 1990 no longer exist by the same name or territory so a direct comparison is impossible. In other cases growth of churches has lowered the ratio below 1.0. These are being eliminated year by year as church growth occurs.

The number of churches is taken from this edition of the Annual Statistical Report; population statistics are for mid-1999 and are provided by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

Some countries with a population of one million or more yet with little or no Seventh-day Adventist organizational structure are shown in parentheses.

Table 2 lists all countries and areas of the world and shows church-planting activity and general growth, including the number of churches, members, and ordained ministers for each country.

Although isolated Sabbath keepers or Seventh-day Adventists from other countries are known to reside in some countries where there is no organized church, the data here corresponds to official reports from the divisions or attached union.

The "Ordained Ministers" column excludes those who serve in administrative positions at the union and division levels.

Definitions.—Officially, what is a "country or area of the world"? For the purposes of this report, it is a political entity recognized by the United Nations. Because the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in the list or the absence of others. The countries shown in the accompanying Global Mission tables are as listed in the United Nations publication "Statistical Papers," Series A Vol. LII, No. 1, Data available as of January 1, 2000. Exceptions are Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and Taiwan, which are considered by the United Nations to be a part of China. Population figures are supplied by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

"Presence" means the existence within the territory of an organized church.

"Established work" exists in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: (1) when an organized church meets regularly; (2) when a mission station, healthcare facility, or school is functioning regularly; or (3) when a regular full-time denominational employee is based in the country carrying on outreach or soul-winning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company, or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbath keepers, employees traveling through, or temporary service by regular employees, student missionaries, or other volunteer employees. The countries where the church does not have established work are listed in a half-page table on page 62.

The "number of countries and areas of the world" as listed by the United Nations as of December 31, 1999 is 229.

Symbols Used in These Tables:

- + Improvement, but percentage calculation is impossible because the beginning figure is zero.
- () Negative number.
