STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist Conferences, Missions, and Institutions Throughout the World for the Year Ending December 31, 2000

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT

Growth and its Challenges.—This past year marks the second consecutive year that over one million people joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church by baptism or profession of faith. Those accessions and the current growth rate of 6.84 percent mean that the ratio of Seventh-day Adventists to world population advanced from one to 547 at the end of 1999 to one for every 519 at the end of this year. Thus, within the past 40 years, the ratio of Seventh-day Adventists to world population has moved from one to 2,427 (1960) to our current ratio of one to 519. Projections based upon the previous 10-year average annual growth rate (5.73 percent) indicate that at the end of 2010 there could be one Seventh-day Adventist for every 301 people on the planet. During this past year, Seventh-day Adventists experienced growth at a rate almost five times that of the increase in the world population. In addition to its membership increase of 748,047, the year 2000 became the second consecutive year that Seventh-day Adventists contributed over one billion in tithe.

A new feature within this report (see pages 71-73) calculates a population-per-member ratio by countries and regions of the world. It can readily be seen, for instance, that within the Islamic Republic of Iran there is only one Seventh-day Adventist for every two million of that country's population, while within Brazil there is a one-to-171 ratio. The map on page 71 graphically illustrates the variation and thus the challenge faced in presenting the gospel message committed to Seventh-day Adventists in every corner of the world.

Statistical State of the Church.—The report before you provides a detailed statistical summary of the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of 2000. It devotes 41 pages in its major section that give some 38 items of information about church membership, contributions, and church workers, for each conference, mission, union, and division. The remaining pages provide historical statistics, departmental statistics, and summary tables. A Seventh-day Adventist statistical archives consisting of past statistical reports, tables, and documents is available on the web at www.adventist.org/ast.

GLOBAL MISSION

The Church's Presence, Outreach, and Mission

Challenge of Global Mission.—The Global Mission document voted at the 1989 Annual Council and endorsed at the 1990 General Conference Session seeks to create an awareness, in concrete measurable terms, of what the gospel commission means to the church today.

Monitoring Global Advance.—Table 1 below lists major unentered regions of the world according to conferences or missions rather than by countries. It is based on a challenge of Global Mission: to place a church among each one million of earth's population. To locate regions where the ratio of churches to population is less than 1:1,000,000, we have used the 2001 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook to find those conferences or missions with low church-to-population ratios. For example, in the Sahel Union Mission of the Africa-Indian Ocean Division the Burkina Faso Mission has a population of 11.9 million but only five churches. Therefore, on average, each church serves a population of 2.4 million people!

This view of the global challenge shows in which conferences or missions the great challenges lie in relation to the Adventist "presence." (For a definition of "presence" see "Definitions" in the next column.)

A column is provided to show the "Population Estimate (Millions) Per Church 1990" for comparison. The basis for these entries is the 1991 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook. In some cases the 2000 ratio is larger than the 1990 ratio. This may be due to a population that is growing more rapidly than the church or to official revisions in population estimates, rather than to a loss of churches. In some cases the fields that existed in 1990 no longer exist by the same name or territory so a direct comparison is impossible. In other cases growth of churches has lowered the ratio below 1.0. These are being eliminated year by year as church growth occurs.

The number of churches is taken from this edition of the Annual Statistical Report; population statistics are for mid-2000 and are provided by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

Some countries with a population of one million or more yet with little or no Seventh-day Adventist organizational structure are shown in parentheses.

Table 2 lists all countries and areas of the world and shows church-planting activity and general growth, including the number of churches, members, and ordained ministers for each country.

Although isolated Sabbath keepers or Seventh-day Adventists from other countries are known to reside in some countries where there is no organized church, the data here corresponds to official reports from the divisions or attached union.

The "Ordained Ministers" column excludes those who serve in administrative positions at the union and division levels.

Definitions.—Officially, what is a "country or area of the world"? For the purposes of this report, it is a political entity recognized by the United Nations. Because the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in the list or the absence of others. The countries shown in the accompanying Global Mission tables are as listed in the United Nation's publication "Statistical Papers," Series A Vol. LII, No. 1, Data available as of January 1, 2001. Exceptions are Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, Macao Special Administrative Region, and Taiwan, which are considered by the United Nations to be a part of China. Population figures are supplied by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

"Presence" means the existence within the territory of an organized church.

"Established work" exists in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: (1) when an organized church meets regularly; (2) when a mission station, healthcare facility, or school is functioning regularly; or (3) when a regular full-time denominational employee is based in the country carrying on outreach or soul-winning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company, or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbath keepers, employees traveling through, or temporary service by regular employees, student missionaries, or other volunteer employees. The countries where the church does not have established work are listed in a half-page table on page 67.

The "number of countries and areas of the world" as listed by the United Nations as of December 31, 2000 is 228.

Symbols Used in These Tables:

- + Improvement, but percentage calculation is impossible because the beginning figure is zero.
- () Negative number.
