STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist® Conferences, Missions, and Institutions Throughout the World for the Year Ending December 31, 2013 (including year-end membership statistics for 2014)

ABOUT THIS REPORT: LOOKING BACK OVER A QUINQUENNium OF CHANGE

Changes in the Report.—This is the 151st annual report of Seventh-day Adventist statistics, the 108th report published as a standalone volume, and the second to report membership and congregational statistics from a different year (in this case, statistics are as of December 31, 2014) than the institutional, financial and personnel statistics (which are as of December 31, 2013). Because the Global Mission tables draw on membership, congregational and personnel statistics, the data in those tables is not from 2014 but from 2013. We are pleased again to include color charts illustrating some key statistics and statistical trends (pp. 5–6), as well as the color map of the 10/40 Window (p. 84).

Church Growth.—In 2014 a total of 1,167,506 people became Seventh-day Adventists by baptism and profession of faith—an average of 133 every hour across the whole year. This was the eleventh year in succession in which more than one million new church members joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Membership Audits.—The global program of membership audits in the 2010–2015 quinquennium has had a major impact on statistics. In all, 3,068,137 church members were dropped from membership or recorded as missing over the last five years (2010 through 2014), while 261,879 deaths were reported. In the same five years, a total of 5,563,087 church members were added by baptism or profession of faith. While we praise God for these souls, we are chastened by the loss rates: 50.2 members per 100 new converts since 2000, and a net loss of 39.25% of all church members over the last fifty years. The scale of losses (dropped and missing), identified in audits, undercuts the substantial numbers of accessions: this point is illustrated in Chart 1 (p. 5).

Of course, the losses were not caused by the membership audits, which record the departure of those who had already separated from the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Many, perhaps most, were lost well before the last five years of audits.

One key metric in checking the accuracy of membership statistics is the mortality rate: the number of deaths per thousand people in a population. By comparing Adventist mortality rates with those of the population as a whole in any given territory, it is possible to get a good sense of whether the reported membership is credible. Chart 3 (p. 5) shows how the mortality rate of the world church has increased from an historic low in 2012, though it remains lower than can be explained even by the Adventist health advantage. Many unions have, however, not yet completed comprehensive audits; when they do, sometime in the next quinquennium, we anticipate that the mortality rate will become more realistic. Membership will continue to rise more slowly, however, than in the recent past, as audits continue to identify and deduct those who may have left some time ago, but whose departure was not picked up at the time.

New and Revised Tables.—Table 18 (p. 8) is a new addition to the ASR: numbers of conferences, missions and unions are some of the statistics that are most often requested. Table 19 (p. 8) is not new but provides new, richer detail about Adventist broadcasting. Finally, Table 22 (p. 9), which shows numbers of missionaries, has undergone considerable change, to give a more accurate count of the number of missionaries in service, by including more than personnel who serve in another division having been called by the General Conference.

Areas of Growth.—One of the most significant developments in denominational statistics is the increasing proportion of tithes and offerings that come from outside the North American Division (NAD). Until recently, more than half of global tithes and offerings came from NAD. Chart 2 (p. 5), however, illustrates a new trend: even though NAD's net tithes and offerings have continued to increase by more than the rate of inflation, in 2013 it contributed 43% of world tithes and offerings. The South American Division now contributes 35%, with the rest of the world 22%: a sign of growth and development in the world church.

Another area of significant growth is in the number of congregations (churches and companies). A large part of the reason for 11 years of million-plus accessions has been church-planting. Charts 4 and 5 (p. 6) illustrate the growth in net congregations and numbers of new congregations over the past five years. Looking only at the number of new local churches and not including companies, 2,446 new churches were organized in 2014: a new record for a calendar year.

Finally, the denominational work force continues to grow, as illustrated in Chart 6 (p. 6). The "workers are few" (Matt. 9:37, Luke 10:2), in contrast to the size of the harvest we hope for, but the increasing work force is a major factor in the continued growth of membership.

Attendance.—This is the third Report that includes statistics on church attendance and it is important to note that not all regions of the world have, as yet, fully implemented counting attendance at Sabbath School and divine service. We hope that, by the end of the next quinquennium, attendance figures will be broadly accurate; but for the moment, although in some divisions counting is done comprehensively, total figures for attendance are not yet reliable in many unions and, consequently, in most divisions.

ADVENTIST DEVELOPMENT AND RELIEF AGENCY (ADRA)

The Adventist Development and Relief Agency (ADRA) acts as the humanitarian arm of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and is active in over 130 countries, broken down into 10 regions below. In 2013, the funds for program support and implementation totaled $291,556,608. In addition, over $18,253,137 worth of gifts in kind were received. The ADRA network is comprised of 4,847 staff and 16,967 volunteers. The investment of resources, both monetary and otherwise, resulted in the implementation of 1,007 projects that impacted 21,696,545 people.

GLOBAL MISSION

The Church's Presence, Outreach, and Mission

Challenge of Global Mission.—The Global Mission document voted at the 1989 Annual Council and endorsed at the 1990 General Conference Session seeks to create an awareness, in concrete measurable terms, of what the gospel commission means to the church today.

Monitoring Global Advance.—Table 1 below lists major unentered regions of the world according to conferences or missions rather than by countries. It is based on a challenge of Global Mission: to place a church among each one million of earth's population. To locate regions where the ratio of churches to population is less than 1:1,000,000, we have used the 2014 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook to find those conferences or missions with low church-to-population ratios. For example, in the West Congo Union Mission of the East-Central Africa Division the Lower Congo Field has a population of 6.2 million and 5 churches. Therefore, on average, each church serves a population of 1.2 million people. Progress is indicated in the fact that in 1997, when this field was organized, each church served an average of 3.4 million people.

This view of the global challenge shows in which conferences or missions the great challenges lie in relation to the Adventist "presence." (For a definition of "presence" see "Definitions" in the next column.)

A column is provided to show the "Population Estimate (Millions) Per Church 1990 or When Organized" for comparison. The basis for these entries is the 1991 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook or the Yearbook representing the year of the field's organization after 1990. In some cases the 2013 ratio is larger than the earlier ratio. This may be due to a population that is growing more rapidly than the church or to official revisions in population estimates, rather than to a loss of churches. In some cases the fields that existed in 1990 no longer exist by the same name or territory so a direct comparison is impossible. In other cases growth of churches has lowered the ratio below 1.0. These are being eliminated year by year as church growth occurs.

The number of churches is taken from this edition of the Annual Statistical Report; population statistics are for mid-2013 and are provided by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

Some countries with a population of one million or more yet with little or no Seventh-day Adventist organizational structure are shown in parentheses.

Table 2 lists all countries and areas of the world and shows church-planting activity and general growth, including the number of ordained ministers, churches, companies, and members, for each country.

Although isolated Sabbath keepers or Seventh-day Adventists from other countries are known to reside in some countries where there is no organized church, the data here corresponds to official reports from the divisions.

The "Ordained Ministers" column excludes those who serve in administrative positions at the union and division levels.

Definitions.—Officially, what is a "country or area of the world"? For the purposes of this report, it is a political or geographical entity recognized by the United Nations. Because the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in the list or the absence of others. The countries and areas shown in the accompanying Global Mission tables are as listed in the United Nations Statistics Division, Standard Country and Area Codes Classifications (M49) list, with changes through 6 November 2013. (Exception: Taiwan is not listed in the United Nations publication.) Population figures are supplied by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

"Presence" means the existence within the territory of an organized church.

"Established work" exists in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: (1) when an organized church meets regularly; (2) when a mission station, healthcare facility, or school is functioning regularly; or (3) when a regular full-time denominational employee is based in the country or area carrying on outreach or soul-winning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company, or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbath keepers, employees traveling through, or temporary service by regular employees, student missionaries, or other volunteer employees. Countries or areas where the church does not have established work are listed in a half-page table on page 79.

The "number of countries and areas of the world" as listed by the United Nations as of 6 November 2013 is 240. Our count is 237 because we do not count Hong Kong SAR or Macao SAR (or Taiwan) since they are considered part of China (except for the purposes of GM Table 3, where all three are counted); and we do not include Sark as it is part of the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

Symbols Used in Table 2:

- + Improvement, but percentage calculation is impossible because the beginning figure is zero.
- Decrease in growth.
- () Negative number.

GLOBAL MISSION

(GM) Table 3

10/40 Window

Matthew 24:14: "And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come." NIV

The 10/40 Window describes a rectangular-shaped region of the world map in the eastern hemisphere between the 10 and 40 northern lines of latitude, which includes North Africa, the Middle East, and Asia, where more than 60% of the world's population live. This region is home to some of the largest people groups who do not have access to the Gospel message. The majority of the world's least evangelized countries and a great number of the poor are within the 10/40 Window. It contains three of the world's dominant religions: Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism, plus the non-religious. Much of this region also has Biblical and historical significance.

Note 1—Per Capita after 1921 decreased because of inflated European currency values transposed to gold basis.
 Note 3—Total General Employees column does not include credentialed and licensed literature evangelists.

Note 2—As of 2008, 'Unions of Churches' are being counted as unions, no longer as local conferences.
